SUBJECT : Request for Informal Review of the Draft for Select Chapters of Volume II,
Personnel Security, of the Security
Program of CIA

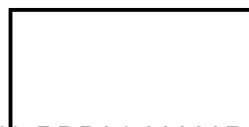

1. It is respectfully requested that an informal review of the draft of these select Chapters on Personnel Security be made by you and other members of the Historical Staff as you desire appropriate.

2. It is important to obtain the impact of the various Administration, Directors, and those responsible to the Directors in attempting to reveal the true picture of the gradual growth of the Personnel Security Program for CIA in its entirety.

3. The author has taken the liberty to attempt to explain the "who, what, whys and hows" under the various administrations and administrators. In order to reveal the steady growth or evolution of the Personnel Security Program, it has been essential to infringe to a degree on the planning, structural, and supervisory side of not only the Office of Security, CIA, but those components within CIA (OSO, OPC, DDP, DDI, etc.), and the Administrations that played an important part in creating these changes.

4. As will be noted, a number of the problems, decisions and remedial acts are based upon the actual personal experience of the writer.

ILLEGIB

5. The author has endeavored to follow the general guidelines of the outline as suggested by yourself and members of the Historical Staff during our several meetings on the subject.

6. Your comments will be appreciated.
